

Lily Cox

Lily has over 5 years recruitment experience, she is passionate about building long lasting relationships and providing industry insights to not only be a trusted recruitment partner for her clients but also someone that can consult around specific marketing recruitment solutions. Lily is personable and truly cares about helping to ensure she finds the perfect fit for both client and candidates.

Lily is on the committee for 'Marketing Women Inc' a Melbourne based NFP that helps to support, educate, and inspire women in marketing in their professional and personal growth. She volunteers her time to set up their Mentor program and help run their events. Providing an opportunity for Marketing women at all levels of their career and across a range of different industries to network, connect, and learn from each other.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY

"Lily is a true professional in her field, not only in Recruitment, but in fostering relationships, and understanding the needs of her clients and her team. As an invaluable committee member at Marketing Women Inc., Lily has shown incredible tenacity, passion, and a pursuit of excellence in the delivery of the Mentor Program and contribution for the Marketing Women Inc. Committee. I would recommend Lily as a consultant, a coach, and a team member, any day of the week."
