About Kirsten

I am a Principal Consultant with Method Recruitment where my focus is to support my clients and candidates in the Banking & Financial Services Space with a focus on Project and Product Delivery. I consider myself to be heavily relationship focused with a view to providing sustainable recruitment solutions for my clients and candidates alike.

Since starting my career in recruitment in 2015, I have built out my knowledge and expertise with my Banking & Financial Services clients, having placed 100's of candidates within the Projects, Design, Cloud, Engineering, Architecture, and Infrastructure space. Now at Method Recruitment, I will be honing in on my experience within the Project and Product space. My experience within the B&FS industry, coupled with the fact that I have recruited roles across the entire enterprise means I understand what project and pieces of work my candidates will be working on. I am then able to source the right talent with the right skills to be successful in the role.

When I am not working, you will find me either chasing after my toddler, in my kitchen or hanging out with my family and friends.

Testimonials

"It is refreshing to deal with someone in the recruitment industry who genuinely puts their clients first and treats you as a person rather than a commission. Kirsten is very professional in her dealings, dedicated and enthusiastic in her role. She has an open and friendly rapport with her clients that puts you immediately at ease. You get the sense that each client she works with gives her a great deal of personal satisfaction knowing that she has helped someone further their career. It has been a pleasure dealing with Kirsten and I look forward to working with her into the future. An asset in an industry which is all too often heavy on the sales pitch and poor on delivery."

- Bryn - Senior Business Analyst (Plum Financial Services)

"Kirsten placed me in my current role at MLC Ltd. I found her to be truly professional and it was a pleasure dealing with her. I was very impressed by the screening process employed to ensure that it's candidates' skill set, experience and personality are a perfect match to prospective employers."

- Tracey - Senior Business Analyst (MLC Wealth)

"Kirsten placed me in my current contract role and she was great throughout the recruitment process, keeping me informed and providing good insights before heading in for my interviews. Kirsten has kept in touch since ensuring things were going well. I've found Kirsten friendly and genuine and look forward to working with her again for a future contract."

- Glenn - Agile Business Analyst (NAB Labs)

"Kirsten Petrovic is an outstanding recruitment consultant I have ever worked with. As a new immigrant to Australia, I received enormous help from her, throughout the journey of looking for my first job here. As a recruiter she maintained a highly professional demeanor and was always very friendly, and found me the perfect job instantly! Kirsten was quick to understand the kind of role I was looking for, recognising my strengths and putting me forward for exactly the right job. She was always there to help throughout the process.

Professional, thorough and consistently going the extra mile are but just a few reasons that I wouldn't hesitate to recommend Kirsten Petrovic when recruiting new staff or indeed for anyone looking for a new career change."

- James - Senior Developer (NAB)

"It was a pleasure to work with Kirsten throughout the recruitment process. Kirsten constantly kept in touch and provided feedback, and helped me prepare for the next steps. As someone who is new to Melbourne, I appreciate the openness and personal touch that she brings to her work. This helped me ease into my new role as well as support my transition into Melbourne. If you are looking for your next role, I highly recommend getting in touch with Kirsten."
