About John

I am John, a Principal Consultant at Method Recruitment Group. I specialize in .Net recruitment across Australia, catering to both contract and permanent positions. My expertise spans across the Full-Stack, including Back-End, and Front-End focused roles within the Microsoft stack, ensuring that I can effectively match talent with the specific requirements of my clients.

What sets me apart as a technology recruitment consultant is my specialized focus in the .Net technology domain. With years of experience and a well-established network, I possess a deep understanding of the technology and the factors that drive candidates in this market. This expertise enables me to deliver targeted results and effectively meet the unique demands of my clients.

Building long-term relationships is at the core of my talent acquisition strategy. By nurturing strong connections, I have the advantage of reaching out to passive candidates with the ideal opportunities they've been waiting for. This approach enables me to identify and engage top-tier tech talent effectively and make placements which last.

In my personal life, I am an active individual who enjoys playing Football (Soccer) and regularly goes to the gym. I have a deep passion for exploring new technology and stay up to date with the latest advancements. Additionally, I have a love for travel and have had the opportunity to explore various parts of the world before settling down in Australia.

Testimonials

I was cold-contacted by John on LinkedIn, so was not sure how it would go. John understood my requirement immediately, and within a few days has great candidates to put forward. The first two were so good we hired both, and have since stopped dealing with two other recruiters as John is so much better!

I am thrilled to provide a testimonial for John, the recruiter who helped me secure my Senior Software Engineer role. John is a true professional who is passionate about connecting top talent with exceptional job opportunities. From the very beginning, I was impressed by his expertise, dedication, and commitment to finding the perfect fit for me and the hiring company. John took the time to get to know me, understand my skills and experience, and identify job opportunities that aligned with my interests and career goals. He provided valuable feedback and guidance throughout the entire recruitment process, from preparing for interviews to negotiating a fantastic compensation package. One thing that stood out about John was his communication skills. He was always available to answer any questions I had and kept me informed and up-to-date on the status of my application. He provided timely and insightful feedback, which helped me to refine my interview skills and improve my chances of success. John's professionalism and attention to detail were also evident in the way he presented me to the hiring company. He highlighted my strengths and achievements, and provided a clear and compelling case for why I was the best candidate for the job. Thanks to John's hard work and expertise, I was able to secure a Senior Software Engineer role that exceeded my expectations. I would highly recommend John to anyone looking for a dedicated and knowledgeable recruiter who is committed to helping them achieve their career goals.
